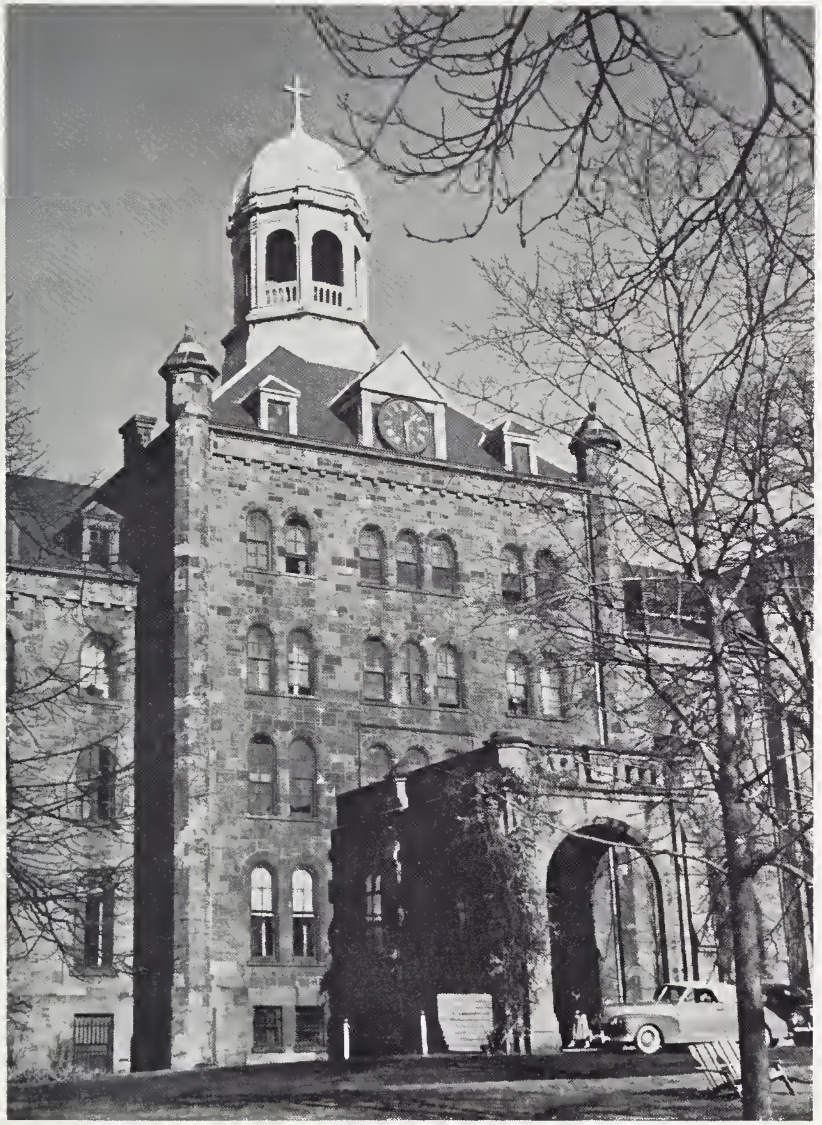
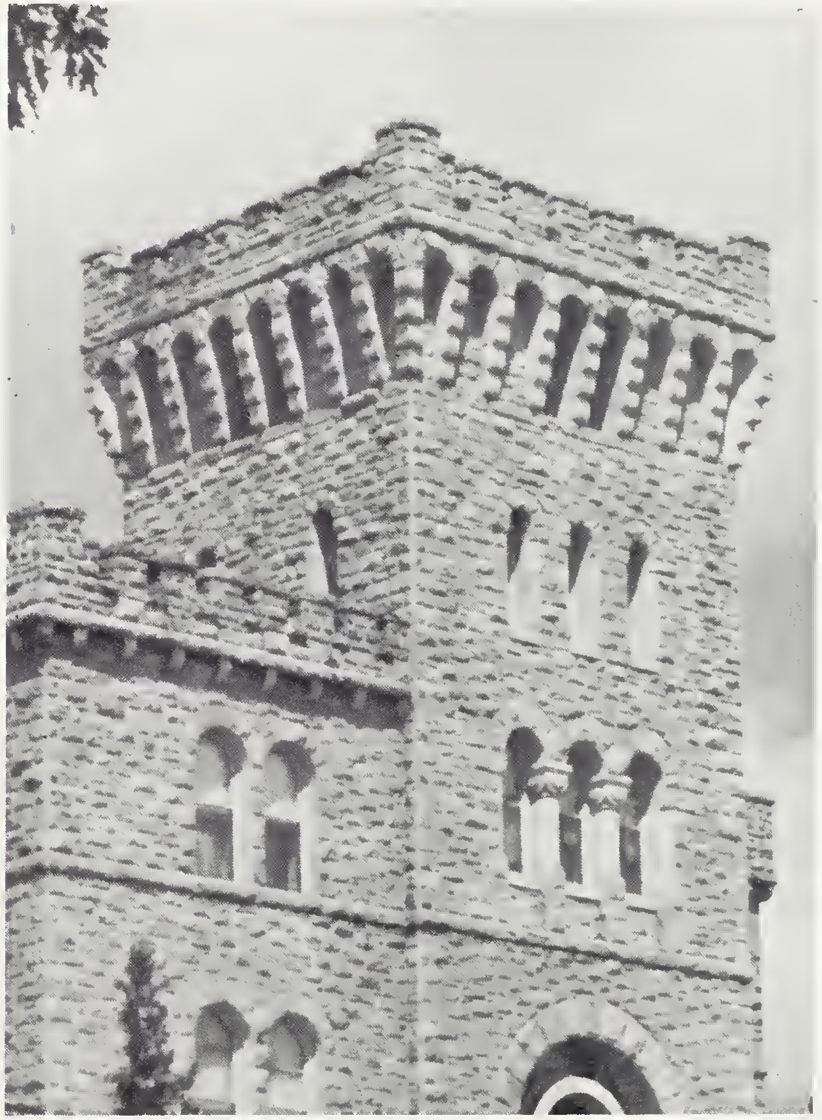
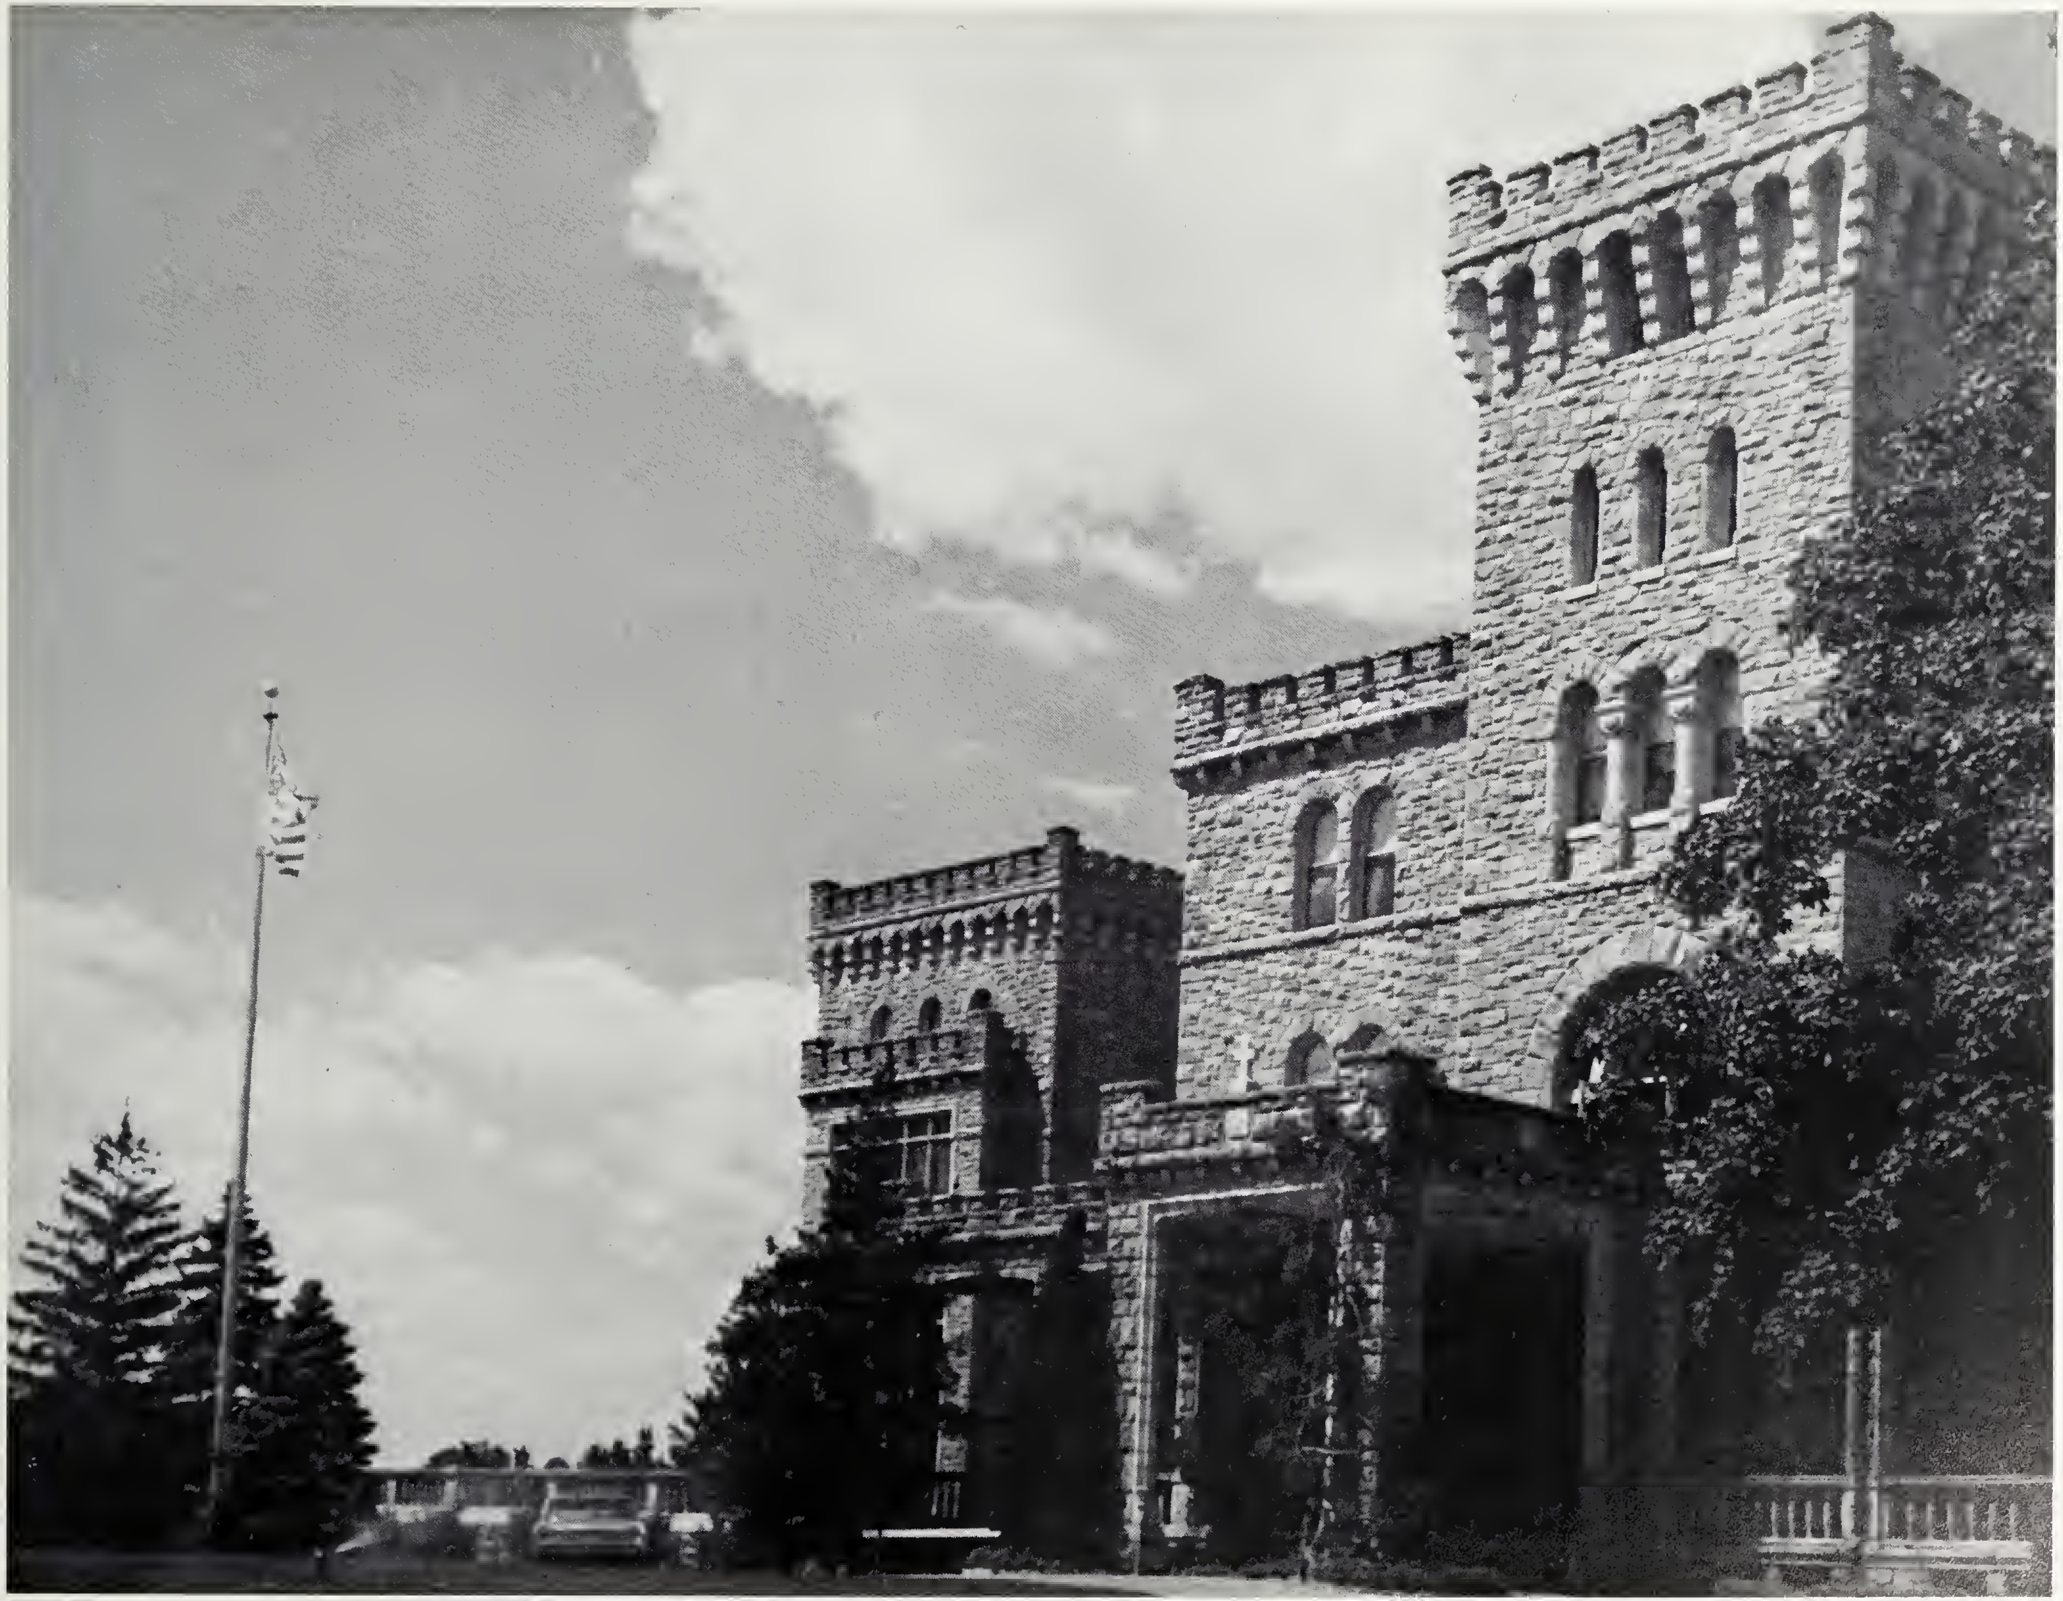
1962 TOWER





MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE OF THE SACRED HEART

PURCHASE, N. Y.



Pius X School of Liturgical Music

Brady Memorial Library

Benziger Building

Spellman Hall

Kennedy Building

Founders Hall

Chapel Construction as of December 1961

Dedication

Over ten years ago, there was a map of the terrain and a blueprint. More than that, there was a vision which animated the blueprint; the result, is something far more than stone and concrete. From the blueprint was born the campus in Purchase; from the vision was born the new Manhattanville. Through foresight and love, the tradition of the Sacred Heart was carried to Westchester where it would continue to be the impetus behind the education of the modern woman, involved and in love with her world. The fitting conclusion to a great exertion has been the two hundred and twenty acres of secluded campus which is not the safeguard of our isolation but the instrument of our involvement.

On the tenth anniversary of Manhattanville's establishment in Purchase, we dedicate the 1962 Tower to Reverend Mother Fitzgerald. It was Reverend Mother's foresight which made possible a new campus following the tradition of the Sacred Heart, where knowledge is not the sole aim, but rather wisdom, which is knowledge coupled with magnanimity.

Essay

P. Dowd, B. Ward, M. T. Ryan, D. Gavin, A. Manning, Editor; B. Stevenson.

First a word was fuzzy, and was nothing . . .
Then a word was mighty, . . .
Finally a word was elegant and sheer, . . .
It was the world-memory alone.
Richard Eberhart

THE TOWER

. . . apart from any past, apart
From any future . . .
The present close, the present realized, . . .
The vivid thing in the air that never changes,
Though the air change.
